

Train Believers in Jesus

Dear Friend:

God wants you to grow up! Your heavenly Father's goal is for you to mature and develop the characteristics of Jesus Christ. Sadly, millions of Christians grow older but never grow up. Stuck in the perpetual spiritual infancy, they live on milk and not meat.

Spiritual growth is not automatic. You don't catch it like a cold. Walking into church, hearing sermons, even attending a Bible study doesn't make you grow up. These three things are a necessary part of growing up, but you have to listen and do what you hear and learn at church. God wants you to grow up! God's goal is for you to mature and develop the characteristics of Jesus Christ. Are you committed to growing? Your commitments define you and your commitments will either develop you or destroy you.

It is our mission at Franklin Church to be committed to helping believers grow up spiritually. We train believers not only so that they will grow up, but also so that they will use their gifts and talents in the church. A part of the training is to help believers discover their gifts and talents and then direct them into a ministry in the church. When runners talk to each other they usually ask a question: "How's your training going?" Let me ask you the same question, "How's your spiritual training going?"
